MSC Gives Us Thirteen Voices . . .

MSC Madrigal Singers, Piano-Duo Giving Convo

A convocation at 10 a.m. today will feature the Montana State college Madrigal Singers, a men's quartet, and a piano-duo.

The singers will present several 16th and 17th century madrigals, along with contemporary selections and spirituals. The men's quartet will sing Rube Bloom's "Song of the Bayou," and the pianists will present two of Brahms' "Hungarian Dances."

The Madrigal Singers, directed by Henry Campbell, will sing "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth," "The Silver Swan," "Innsbruck, I Now Must Leave Thee," "Now Is the Month of Maying," "I Thought That Love Had Been a Boy," and "Hark, Jolly Shepherds," all of which are traditional madrigals. The group will also present the spiritual, "Soon—Ah Will Be Done," by Dawson, and a round from Britten's opera, "Peter Grimes," called "Old Joe Has Gone Fishing."

A special feature will be a composition by Robert Lagerquist of

All 10 o'clock classes will be excused for the convocation this morning. Other classes will be held at their regular hours.

the MSC music department called "Clearing At Dawn."

The groups will appear at the University as a part of a concert series tour of Western Montana which will take them to Polson, Kalispell, Whitefish, and Anaconda.

Miss Montana Pageant Tonight

Six $75 scholarships and the Miss Montana title are at stake tonight for the 16 contestants in the Miss Montana pageant, which begins at 8:15 p.m.

Talent and appearance in evening gowns will be judged tonight. Personality and appearance in bathing suits will be judged privately this afternoon and tomorrow. Names of the six scholarship winners will be announced at the coronation ball tomorrow night, and Pat McGinty, Miss Montana of 1951, will place the regal crown upon her successor.

ASMSU President Bill Reynolds

will escort Miss McGinty to the Miss Montana throne. Escorts for the six finalists will be ASMSU Business Manager Harvey Schlieman, Missoula; Bob Smith, Choteau, ex-president of Interfraternity council; Dan Lambros, Missoula, and Bill McMaster, Butte, candidates for ASMSU President; Neal McCurdy, Missoula, Chief Grizzly of Bear Paw; and George Ostrum, Kalispell, Interfraternity president.

Jerry Britton, Great Falls, will be master of ceremonies for the ball, and will award the "Miss Congeniality" cup to one of the contestants. Reynolds will award the six $75 Miss Montana scholarships.

Tickets for the semi-formal ball are still on sale in the Coke store for $1.25. Fred Cunningham will be master of ceremonies for tonight's pageant, the sixth to be presented under AWS sponsorship. Gib Liebing will be organist.

The 13 MSU contestants were selected by the student Miss Montana central committee, on the basis of beauty of face, beauty of figure, talent, and personality. After being interviewed by the committee, they underwent a four-week training course in poise, posture, and etiquette, and were given an orientation on the Miss Montana and Miss America programs. The Billings candidates went through a similar selection procedure.

Miss Montana's trip to Atlantic City—where she will compete not only for the Miss America title but for one of the $1,000 or $500 scholarships—will be financed in part by the proceeds from the Coronation ball. She has also been invited to attend the Minneapolis Aquatennial.

Two previous Miss Montana's,

1947's Carol Chaffin and 1949's Carol Fraser, won $500 scholarships, and Miss Fraser won the "Miss Congeniality" trophy. Patti Luer, Miss Montana of 1948—who has been described by Miss America pageant director Lenora Slaughter as "the greatest talent find ever to appear on the stage at Atlantic City"—was awarded $2,000 to continue her voice training.

Miss McGinty, now taking advanced voice training at Colorado Women's College, was rated as one of the top nine contenders for the national crown by Quick.

McMaster, Lambros Vie For Top ASMSU Post

Bill McMaster and Danny Lambros, the two candidates aspiring for the ASMSU presidency, will automatically be listed on the ballot in the final elections which are to take place between May 1 and 5.

The Aber day primary will show the relative strength of the two candidates, both very active on the campus, and will evidence the amount of tub-thumping each contestant will have to do to win the highest post in ASMSU leadership.

Lambros, a Sigma Nu, majoring in business administration, from Missoula, was elected to Central board as a freshman. He became a Bear Paw his sophomore year and was elected left paw or treasurer.

He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, national business fraternity on the campus, and he helped to put out the M book last year. In the current Miss Montana pageant, Lambros is in charge of the committee on judging.

McMaster, hailing from Butte, was elected vice-president of the freshman class his first year on the campus. As a sophomore, he was elected a delegate to Central board for a two-year reign.

During the time he was a Bear Paw, McMaster was elected chief Grizzly. He is a Sigma Chi, majoring in education. He is also a track letterman, earning his first letter last year in the 440-yard dash.

TKA Meet Draws 22 NW Colleges

Twenty-two universities and colleges have entered the sixth annual Northwest Tau Kappa Alpha speech tournament to be held here today and Saturday, with approximately 200 contestants expected to be participants.

The contestants are entered in debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and interpretative reading.

Among the schools entered are Oregon state college, Denver university, Utah university, Washington state college, Brigham Young university, and Gonzaga.

After today's contests, the Tau Kappa Alpha informal dance will be held in the Governor's room of the Hotel Florence from 9 to 12. Tickets are $1 per couple, and may be bought at temporary office 105 or from debate members.

'Moby Dick' Here Sunday

"Moby Dick," adapted from Herman Melville's tale of the sea and a whaling captain, will be shown by the University Film society Sunday at 7 and 9 p.m. John Barrymore and Joan Bennett head the cast.

"Moby Dick" is noted by critics as an excellent job of acting.

This adaptation, although it takes liberties from Melville's novel of a sea captain's hunt for a white whale, is said to race along holding attention throughout.

Royaleers Leave for Butte To Participate in Festival

The Royaleers square dance club members are traveling to Butte today and tomorrow to represent the University at the 3rd Annual Square Dance festival being held there April 25-27 in the new Civic center.

This year as before, the club will exhibit the Royal Square but with some new innovations added. Win Hunt, club caller, has organized two formations which tend to give the Royal a "Circus" effect. In the "merry-go-round," the girls are twirled and revolved about by a circle of boys whose arms appear to be like the up-and-down motions of the rods on a real carousel. In the other formation, a "ferris wheel" effect is produced by four outside couples simulating the "seats" revolving while the four inside couples turn in a circle representing the "wheel."

Third Annual Trip

This will be the third time that the club has attended the all-state event. As many "oldies" will recollect, the club had its first impetus from this square dance festival. In the spring of '50, twenty people were recruited from the then newly-organized square dance classes by Win Hunt and Prof. Agnes Stoodley of the women's P.E. department.

Those twenty exhibited the first Royal Square ever to be seen in Montana and from which the club derived its name. Most of them have graduated or left school but a few are still active in the club.

Veteran Dancers

Those veterans who will attend are Ralph Backa, Great Falls; Eddie Gryczan, Cleveland, Ohio; Peggy Dean Ask, Missoula; and Ethel and Mary Henderson, Rye-gate.

In all, 31 clubs from all parts of the state and from out-of-state will exhibit in the benefit-sponsored festival. Local square dance authorities describe the shindig as being "about the largest in the state." They expect that over 3,000 people will be there.

Such dances as "Always," "Ding Dong Daddy," "Cotton Eyed Joe," "Arkansas Traveler," among others, will be featured. "Spell of the Yukon" will be presented by a club from Anchorage, Alaska.

Hollywood Man Coming

Ralph Maxhimer, western dance stylist of North Hollywood, Calif., will be master of ceremonies.

Green and yellow costumes will be worn by the dancers, although red and white may be a substitute color.

THE NIGHT WIRE

BY UNITED PRESS

Michigan.—The five-day riot at Southern Michigan prison has ended with the 171 die-hard convicts enjoying steak and ice cream. The prisoners won the dinner and a 11-point reform program as their price for peace and the safe return of eight hostages. The rebels threw their weapons on the floor outside their cell block fortress, then went to the dining room to celebrate. And while they ate, the hostages ended their hours of terror in joyful reunions with their families.

Berlin.—Some 20,000 East Berlin Communists have rioted in Western Berlin. They battled police with their fists and with stones—yelling for German unity on Soviet terms. Many Reds were hurt and at least 30 were arrested.

Kansas City.—The Missouri river threw its flood crest against Kansas City, Mo., today—and then slowly began to recede. One expert said: "We'll watch it go down from here out at Kansas City." The city's 40-foot levee system has proved more than equal to the task of holding back the river.

Elsewhere, the town of Sabula, Ia., is still being threatened by Mississippi river flood waters.

The Campus Editor Says—

BY ALLAN ROSE

Aber day is apparently waiting for the spring rains. Four sunny spring days have passed this week without any early-morning noise from the Main hall bell.

The only indication so far that Aber day is near, has been an increase in traffic at the local bars. This apparently has been caused by students who cracked under the strain of seeing each beautiful day pass into darkness wasted.

Seriously, the postponement of Aber day is becoming increasingly dangerous. The day must now be Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday of next week. Perhaps the weather will remain unchanged. However, with customary pessimism we predict rain; rain by the bucketful.

A barometer registering faculty enthusiasm for Aber day would also show a steady fall, indicating a storm brewing. Faculty members are muttering angrily this week as midquarter draws near and their schedules are disrupted. An increasing number of students are coming to class without preparation, apparently gambling each night that the next day will be Aber day.

After all the speculation this week, Aber day may come as an anti-climax when it finally arrives next week.

Another Miss Montana

This week end some Montana girl will be selected to represent the state at Atlantic City. We hope she will eventually be crowned as Miss America, but we have our doubts.

We have our doubts because of the past performance of MSU candidates at Atlantic City. The past Miss Montanas have always displayed wonderful talent. They have always had wonderful personalities. They have always been cute. But some other candidate has always been chosen as Miss America.

This would seem to indicate that the Montana girls have lacked something. Could it have been beauty? As we have said, the candidates have always been cute. But have they been beautiful? We don't think so.

From here it looks like the selections of Miss Montana candidates have over-emphasized talent, and under-emphasized beauty. Talent alone will not win the Atlantic City contest. Before the brickbats begin to fly, we'll admit, maybe we're wrong. But wouldn't it be worth a try some year to send the most beautiful girl in Montana, instead of the most talented?

Once more, good luck to Miss Montana, whomever she may be.

Four Measles Cases Reported

There have been four cases of measles reported at the health service in the last two days, according to Dr. M. P. Wright, health service director.

Dr. Wright said that there is no reason to fear an epidemic if students observe several simple precautions:

1. Avoid close contact with anyone.
2. Stay out of crowds.
3. Go to the health service if you have a running nose, watery eyes, or other symptoms which resemble a slight cold. If you have measles, this is the state when the disease is most contagious.

Measles is caused by a filterable virus which is spread by coughing, sneezing, and other droplet infections from the nose and mouth. The virus may be spread by inanimate objects, as books, doorknobs, and drinking fountains.

Dick Hansen, Worden, is the Sigma Alpha Epsilon choice for business manager. Hansen is a regular pitcher on the Grizzly baseball team, and has been active on many of the SAE intramural teams. He is treasurer of his fraternity, and a major in business administration.

Don Cameron, Miles City, is the Sigma Nu entrant. He is a graduate of Custer County junior college. Cameron is the captain of the University debate team, president of the Wesley foundation, and ex-world affairs commissioner of the SCA. He is also a member of Tau Kappa Alpha and the Royals. Cameron is a speech major, and vice-president of Alpha Kappa Psi.

Dick Shadoan, Billings, is the Sigma Chi entrant in the race for ASMSU business manager. Shadoan played football at the University and earned a varsity letter his junior year. He was a Bear Paw, and a member of Traditions board and Athletic board. Last year he was advertising manager of the Sentinel. He is a business administration major, and a member of AKP.

SCA Starts Classes for Camp Heads

A series of five classes on camp and recreational leadership was inaugurated yesterday at 3 p.m. in the Copper room by the Community Affairs commission of the Student Christian association.

"Open to everyone, the classes will teach basic methods of leadership in camp, recreation and community service projects," said Clara C. Wood, SCA faculty advisor. "Students attending learn to lead in these areas."

Mrs. Mary Ellen Faulstich and Helen Morton, students, will instruct the class. Both have had training under Agnes Stoodley, associate professor of health and physical education.

"I think it is a fine idea," commented Dean Wunderlich. Continuing, he explained that "free association is the training ground for leadership in this country. Experience in leadership is excellent for all of us."

According to the Rev. Wood, the next four classes will be as follows:

- May 1—Dramatics, folk dancing and singing.
- May 8—Handicrafts.
- May 15—Swimming.
- May 22—Outdoor crafts, cooking and nature lore.

Co-chairmen of the Community Affairs commission are Davis Watson, Deer Lodge, and Dale Wing, Poplar.

Major Ray New ROTC Professor

Major Charles G. Ray has arrived in the ROTC department to take over Major Wetherell's position of Associate professor of Military Science and Tactics. Major Wetherell, although he has not yet received official orders, plans to leave this spring to enter the Command and Staff school in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Major Ray has just returned from Korea where he spent about 11 months as G-3 for air with the 1st Corp. He served five years in the last war and was commissioned from OCS in 1943 at Fort Benning, Georgia. He was recalled in November of 1950.

Three Candidates Speak About Student Government

Pictured above are the three candidates for ASMSU business manager. Printed below this brief introductory paragraph are their respective opinions of the type of student government best suited to MSU.

The Kaimin has asked the three candidates for their opinion of student government so that the voters of MSU know where the candidates stand concerning student government. The constitutional revision committee has recently been discussing three proposals for changing the present Central board system. The three proposals are: (1) The Senate plan—representation by living groups; (2) The "apple" plan—representation by academic schools or departments; and (3) Modified Central board system—representation by class officers.

Don Cameron—"I believe the present Central board system best fits MSU as an efficient form of student government."

Dick Hansen—"I think the Senate plan is the best, because it gives more students a voice in their government."

Dick Shadoan—"I am not behind any of the three proposals as yet, but I believe that the plans of the Revision committee should be considered. Also, we should consider the success of student governments from other schools comparable to MSU in size."

GALS' HORSESHOE MATCHES SET FOR MONDAY P.M.

Singing, Training, Study Keep McGinty Hustling

BY BETTY SMITH

Pat McGinty, Miss Montana of 1951, has been busy since her coronation last spring. After her graduation in June, she completed her training for the Miss America pageant. Then she was off to Atlantic City and a mad whirl of public appearances, parades, and pageant participation.

"It was hard work," said Pat. They put us through our paces without a moment's rest, but the experience was worth it."

After it was all over and the new Miss America was crowned, Pat found out she had missed a $1,000 scholarship by one point. She placed second in her talent night (talents were presented for three nights) and 17th in the contest.

Besides many vocal appearances, Pat took a screen test for Alexander films, which specializes in advertising, at Colorado Springs,

Coronation Features Weekend

BY PAT SCHWARZ

"Miss Montana of 1952" will be crowned Saturday evening at 10:30 as the climax of the Miss Montana pageant. Pat McGinty, last year's winner, will crown one of the 16 candidates at the Coronation ball in the Gold room. Thirteen of the candidates are from MSU, and three are from Eastern Montana college at Billings.

Appearance and grace in an evening gown will be judged with the talent at tonight's talent show in the Student Union auditorium. The show will begin at 8:15.

Delta Delta Delta

Inspiration week will conclude Sunday with a formal banquet at the Florence hotel. Other inspiration week activities this week were a buffet dinner for the pledges Monday, a party given by the alums Tuesday, and a box social Wednesday. House Aber Day tomorrow will be followed by a picnic.

Ian Davidson, Great Falls, is the newly elected house vice president; Durwood Johnson, Billings, and she posed for pictures for Western airlines.

"That wasn't all," she laughed, "they even put me on a float—this was in a parade as a kick-off for the stock show in Denver."

Besides her numerous appearances, Pat has found time to work in the admissions office at CWC, to study voice with Horace Lee Davis, and to take a course in radio and TV advertising at Denver university. During the past few weeks she has worked with the Miss Colorado pageant.

She plans to start work on her master's degree this summer at Michigan university. Then she wants to teach voice in college.

Pat is in Missoula this week end to appear in the pageant tonight and to crown Miss Montana, 1952, tomorrow night at the Coronation ball.

Shirley Cunningham, Butte, '51, was a guest at the house this week.

Volunteers To Report

Those students who have volunteered to help the P.E. 137 class with the Missoula county playday are to report to the Men's gym at 12:30 today.

Those signed up to serve as afternoon hostesses are: Anne Francis, Helen Morton, Joan Zimmerman, Ed Lucotch, Margaret Gilman, Mary Swearingen, Gwen Flightner, Lynn Hughes, and Lefty Cerino.

Others are Marvis Corin, Dick Pinsonault, Peg Griffith, Celia Twilde, Bill Shreeve, Pat Evans, Jo Ann Abbott, Tom Monohan, Wally Dobbins, Arlene Hoiland, Lynn Hughes, Nonie Brown, Kenette Kenison, and Bill Kupke.

Study Grants Are Available

Men and women who want to train or do research pertaining to Asia and the Near and Middle East can apply for a Ford Foundation fellowship to study in the United States or abroad.

Candidates must be United States citizens who are less than 35 years of age. Students completing their undergraduate studies this year, men and women who have done graduate work relating to these areas in Asia, and persons who are engaged in training for economics, education, journalism, and law are eligible.

Persons who want to find out more about the fellowship can get further information from Dean Wunderlich.

She will marry Dolf Zink, New York, in June.

Sigma Nu

Sandy Bremner, a SN formerly from the College of Puget Sound at Seattle, visited the house last week while he was on furlough. He is pinned to Liz Bradham, KKG, Helena. She was serenaded Monday evening.

Tommy Thompson, SN and former Minnesota University student, was a guest at the house.

Ted Sampson, Great Falls, gave his pin to Nancy Dahl, Butte. Ann Martinson, Kalispell, now wears the "white star" belonging to Don Lucas, Miles City.

Kappa Alpha Theta

Pinkie McCallie, Billings, is wearing the Phi Delt pin of George Scott, Columbus.

Ruth Rawlings, Billings; Doris Sandsmark, Ronan; Billie McFarland, Missoula, and Gwen Gholson, Wallace, Ida., were initiated Saturday evening.

Golf, Tennis Teams Meet Utes Today

BY JIM LARCOMBE

The Grizzly golf and tennis teams will play two matches this weekend. They meet the Utah squads this afternoon in conferences matches, and the teams from Montana State college tomorrow morning at ten.

Golf Team Out For Revenge

Grizzly golfers will be out to get their revenge on Utah today for the defeat which they suffered last week. They lost to the Utes, 11-7.

The lineup against the Redskins will be Dick Hubbard, Don Welch, and Lee and Bob Williams. In their practice rounds this week, all the men looked good, shooting par or a few strokes over.

The golfers now have a record of one win and two losses. They won last Friday from Utah State, 13-5, but lost to BYU, 10-8, and Utah, 11-7.

Utah is now leading the Skyline in tennis, having beaten BYU 5-4, and will undoubtedly give the Grizzly netmen a rough time. Playing on their home courts, the tennis men might possibly salvage a few points.

The lineup for the matches will be as follows:

In the singles and in the positions indicated will be Dick Fletcher (1), Pete Densmore (2), Bob Nogler (3), Bob Sparks (4), Dick Solberg (5), and either Park Densmore or Stuart Gallagher (6).

In doubles competition it will be Nogler-Sparks in number one position, Fletcher-Pete Densmore in the number two spot, and Park Densmore-Solberg in the number three match.

The Grizzly net men now have a 1-2 record in the conference, having beaten Utah State, but losing to BYU and Utah U.

This Week

BY FRANK NORBERG

This week most of the sport talk around the campus has been about that big annual spring sport event—Aber day. But in the campus of the various Grizzly teams the talk has been about the tough competition scheduled for this week end.

The baseball team meets last year's western division and conference champion Utah Redskins in a doubleheader this afternoon and tonight.

And don't think that these aren't crucial games. Although Utah lost most of last year's players, they have been considered by many of the Grizzlies as the best team they met on the Utah trip. The outcome of these games may go a long way in deciding who the division champ will be.

The Grizzlies' hopes of a western division championship this year depend on whether they can take at least five of the six home games, or maybe all six home games.

That's a big order for any team. It'll take a team that hustles and fights for every run it can get. Besides that, it'll take some good pitching, hitting, and fielding. The Grizzlies have the makings of such a team, but we'll let old father time let us know if it is such a team.

The tennis and golf squads run into even tougher competition this afternoon when they meet the aces from Utah. The Utah netmen, who defeated the Grizzlies in nine straight games at Salt Lake City last week, look like they are as good as the team that took the western division championship last year. But with the Montana netmen improving with each workout this week, and the advantage of the home court, the Grizzlies might make it rough for the defending champs from the southland.

The golfers' chances of a victory are better yet. They lost to Utah's linksters on a muddy course at Salt Lake City in matches that were very close. But the score a golfer will shoot on a given day is something that is difficult to predict. Everything is in favor of the Grizzlies, however.

The climax of this week's sports will be the Montana intercollegiate track meet tomorrow. Not much need be said about the Grizzlies' chances here.

Grizzlies Face Redskins In Crucial Games Today

BY JACK ZYGMOND

Partisan Montana baseball fans will get their first view of the 1952 Grizzly lineup today as the young Bruin squad takes on last year's Western Division champs, Utah, in a split doubleheader on Campbell field.

The first game scheduled for 2 this afternoon with Bob Taber (2-0) or Dick Hansen (1-1) on the mound for Montana. Fireballer Gene Carlson is scheduled to toe the mound in the nightcap.

From all appearances it will be a closely contested series. The Grizzlies and the Redskins previously divided a pair at Utah and in both contests one run spelled the difference between the two clubs.

Grizzlies Can Take Edge

The Grizzlies, with a 3-3 record, can take a commanding edge in Western Division standings if they cop both contests. As matters stand now, with a .500 record on the road, the Grizzlies must—if they wish to gain a title berth—take at least five of their next six home games.

Grizzly coaches believe the squad is ready. They had the Bruins practicing under the lights Wednesday and Thursday evenings to accustom the players to the arcs.

Mound Corps Ready

The mound corps is strong and ready for action. Coach Pat Plew had Clare Johnston and stylish southpaw Clint Scott ready for action. Both saw action against the Utah club last week. Johnston—in three and a third innings—allowed only two singles to hold the Utes scoreless. Scott pitched creditable ball too, but Ute catcher Dick Bubak smacked a three run homer to taint his otherwise good performance.

Taber, a chunky righthander, will most probably see action in the home opener, although his throwing arm was hit by a line drive Wednesday evening. It resulted in a stiff forearm for the undefeated Montana hurler and since the arm hasn't healed Hansen will pitch the opener.

Utah will probably again pitch Basil Williams and Carl Astel against Montana. Grizzlies pounded out 20 hits off the combined efforts of these two hurlers but managed only a split in the series.

Sharp Looking Club

Coach Plew said that Utah has a peppery ball club this year. They have some young ball players on their starting nine, but they are something to watch, he said. He made especial mention of shortstop Don Gies, only a freshman who made a number of brilliant plays in last week's plays against Montana.

Seven Teams in I-M Swim Meet Today, Tomorrow

The intramural swimming meet will be this afternoon and tomorrow morning in the pool in the Men's gym. Seven teams are entered in the meet, but only about 25 persons are competing, according to George Cross, intramural director.

Preliminary heats will be this afternoon at 4:15. Events will be the 60 yard medley relay, 40 yard free style, 80 yard back stroke, 80 yard free style, 80 yard breast stroke, and the 160 yard free style.

There will be seven heats in the medley relay, with the five fastest times competing in the finals.

The finals will be tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The first place winners in the preliminary heats will compete. The intramural program will donate a trophy to the winners, and there will also be an inter-fraternity trophy going to the winner of the fraternity teams. The swimming meet is worth 200 points to the winning team.

WILLIAMS WILL SPEAK AT CONSERVATION MEET

Dean Ross Williams of the forestry school has been informed by Conrad Gilbertson of the Flathead Soil Conservation District, Kalispell, that the program for the Conservation Workshop for teachers will be held at the Flathead County high school on April 25 and 26.

Dean Williams will be on one of the panels, the subject of which will be "Responsibility of Different Levels of Montana Educational System in the Conservation of Our Natural Resources."

MSU Plays Host to Montana Intercollegiate Meet Tomorrow

BY BOB CHESNOVER

of the most colorful spring events will be the center reaction on Dornblaser field row at 1:45 when the first g of the intercollegiate track at MSU since 1950 gets untered in the track and field vities are the Grizzlies, the ats of MSC, the Rocky tain Bears, Eastern Mon- s Yellowjackets, and West- tontana College.

tations were also sent to l College, Montana School nes, and Northern Montana e, but they have not sent ir entry blanks yet. So there l a possibility there may be eams performing on the Saturday.

Falls Bisons and the Missoula Spartans also will be held on Dornblaser field.

Very little is known of the capabilities of the four other crews that are entered in Saturday's meet, with the exception of MSC. The first timed trials held by the Bobcats were received here earlier in the week.

Not all of the results of the events run off were available, but here are some of the times and distances recorded by the Cats: 100-yard dash, 10.5; 440-yard dash, 61.7; half mile, 2:35; mile run, 5:57; pole vault, 11 feet 6 inches; javelin, 158 feet 2 inches; shot put, 37 feet 9 inches; discus, 112 feet 11 inches.

A few track and field records may fall in Saturday's clash. Bill Rife has a good chance of toppling the Montana intercollegiate records in the mile and two mile runs.

The record in the mile is 4:33 and Rife is capable of bettering that time by a few seconds. In the two mile run, he also has possibilities of beating the 9:33.6 meet record. Les Hines of Eastern will be a boy to watch in the high jumping event. The meet record is 6 feet 1/4 inch, and it may be broken Saturday.

The high and low hurdles are run very fast by John Badgley of the Grizzlies, and he should be in top form come tomorrow afternoon. He will be aiming at the record of 14.8 in the highs and 24.5 in the lows.

Word was received yesterday that Mike Fleming, Montana's ace half miler, will not compete in the meet tomorrow. Fleming sprained his ankle and will be out of competition until the meet with Utah here on May 10, according to trainer Naseby Rhinehart.

Fred Cunningham will be the announcer for Saturday's events. Jiggs Dahlberg will be head timer and judges of finishes are Frank Grady, Henry Zahn, and Kirby Hoon. The starter and referee will be Lou Hartsell.

The meet between Great Falls and Missoula high schools will be held in conjunction with the intercollegiate meet. Each event in each meet will be run off one after the other. For example, the 100-yard dash for the high school meet will come right after the intercollegiate 100-yard dash, and so on with the other events.

Gal Sluggers Still at Bat

North hall No. 2 played one of their best games of the year, but an error and erratic base running allowed the Tri Deltas to win 6-2 in softball yesterday. New Hall topped the Thetas 11-5 in the second game.

The games were the last of the round robin for all but the Thetas, who play Delta Gamma Monday. Tri Delt finished the tournament with three wins and two losses, while North had four losses and one win. New hall finished second in their league with four wins and one loss.

Theta pitcher Billy McFarland showed a lack of control at times, but held New hall until the last inning, when they pushed across 6 runs. The Thetas failed to put together hits until the last inning, when they scored 5 times.

North Hall held the Tri Deltas even in the last four innings, but couldn't overcome a first inning lead. Tri Delt opened with four runs, and were never behind. Kayel Martinson pitched her best game of the season.

Foresters, SAEs, Rodeo Club Win Games Yesterday

The Rodeo club beat the Ski club, 18-7, the Foresters defeated Theta Chis, 20-4, and the SAEs downed ATOs, 17-4, in softball games yesterday. Every game was called after the end of five innings.

After scoring 15 runs in the first inning, the Rodeo club went on to beat the Ski club, 17-7. It was a game full of much hitting on the part of the Rodeo club and little fielding by the Ski club.

The Foresters rallied for eight runs in the third inning and six in the fourth and went on to easily defeat the Theta Chis, 20-4. Smith pitched the entire game for the Foresters, and John Imsande went all the way for the Theta Chis.

The SAEs had an easy time defeating the ATOs 17-4, as Dale Kissing hit a home run for the SAEs and Dick Pennington blasted one for the ATOs. Al Manuel pitched the whole game for the SAEs, and Gordon Ormesher went all the way for the ATOs.

Kenison Tells of Tourney Schedule

Manager Kenette Kenison announced yesterday that the WAA tennis tournament would be completed tomorrow. Singles play will begin at 9 a.m., and doubles play will start at 1.

Singles contestants must be at the courts to draw for positions by 9. Those not here will not be allowed to enter the tournament.

Competition should be close, with such players as Dona Sherbeck, Mickey Hogarty, Gwen Flightner and Shirley DeForth in play.

Journalism Frat Plans Initiation

Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalistic fraternity, will conduct the spring initiation ceremonies this Sunday at 5 p.m. in the journalism building.

John F. M. Travis, publisher of the Havre Daily News will be initiated into the professional chapter. Bill Jones, Miles City, and Jack Zygmund, Havre, will be taken into the undergraduate chapter.

Prof. R. P. Struckman will give a talk on "Journalistic Ideals" at the evening banquet. Banquet time is set for 7 p.m.

AWS Constitution Study Committee Appointed By Iler

Mollie Iler, Missoula, president of AWS, appointed a committee to study proposed changes in the AWS constitution at the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon. Appointed to the committee were Mary Ann Dimock, Anaconda; Jo Lou Hammer, Billings; Marilyn McConnell, Kalispell; and Donna Skor, Helena.

Preliminary plans were drawn up for the executive board picnic May 7. Purpose of the picnic will be to review the program of the past year in an effort to plan more effective AWS activities.

Maurine Clow, associate dean of students, explained the procedure of selecting judges for the Miss Montana pageant. Judges are chosen from widely scattered points over the state so each contestant's talent is known by one or more of the judges. The judges selected are qualified in the fields of music, art, drama, speech, business, and education so they will be familiar with the talents of the contestants.

Drama Students Receive Honors

Masquers Royale, local honorary for students who distinguish themselves in University drama, tapped three new members last Saturday following the closing performance of "Harvey." Those tapped were Nancy Hays, Missoula; Audrey Linscheid, Vida; and Maxine Taylor, Missoula.

The new members completed their initiation by wearing large golden "R's," which they designed themselves, throughout last Tuesday.

Nancy Hays, junior drama major, has been in 13 major productions, including those of one summer session. She has worked in costuming, lighting, staging, and makeup, and is now Theater secretary.

Audrey Jean Linscheid, junior Mathematics major, has 10 major shows to her credit. She is experienced in costuming, lighting, and box office work. Miss Linscheid is the University Film society manager.

Maxine Taylor, senior in drama, has distinguished herself in 10 major productions, working as choreographer, actress, and as a technician in lighting, in makeup, and in direction. She has served as assistant to the director, as theater secretary, and is active in the Missoula Community theater.

Other student members of Masquers Royale, are Chuck Schmitt, Chicago, Ill.; Larry Kadlec, Missoula; and Robert Haight, Billings.

KKG, New Hall Take KAT, DG In WAA Softball

Kappa Kappa Gamma probably assured themselves an opening round bye in the elimination tournament with a 19-4 win over Kappa Alpha Theta Wednesday. Delta Gamma held New hall until the last inning, when Hall hitters knocked four home runs and brought in 13 runs to win.

Donna Bar, pitching her first game of the year for the Kappa's, looked like one of the faster pitchers in tournament play. The Kappa's gave good fielding and hitting support, driving in 10 runs in the third inning alone. Willie Williams hit the Kappa's only home run. Annemarie Beatty and Anne Rawlings homered for the Theta's.

Gwen Flightner scored the lone Delta Gamma run against New Hall. The DG's held New to 5 runs until the last inning. Then Kathy Pigott got two round trip hits, and Beryl Handford and Diane Blake, one each. Delta Gamma played the game short. The win left New's record at three wins and one loss, to the Kappa's.

A statute mile is 5,280 feet long.

Coke Store Photographs Have Purpose

Perhaps you have been wondering about the new pictures that are hanging on the walls in the Student Union coke store. Jack Cuthbert, cafeteria manager, would like everyone to know what the purpose of these pictures is and what pictures are going to be included in the future.

After the elections are held this spring for the ASMSU offices the new officer's pictures will be put on the walls. Present officers were not included because of their short remaining terms in office. Kaimin and Sentinel editors will have their pictures, as will the AWS president. Also all the captains of athletic teams will be represented. Every year the Homecoming pictures will rate a spot.

The pictures were put up in order to brighten up the coke store and to acquaint students a little more with their officers and bigger wheels around the campus. Each year the pictures will be placed with new faces in the frames. The highest cost for pictures will naturally be this year because of the price of the frames. Catlin studios were this year's photographers. The frames of the pictures, not harmonizing now, will be the same color of the walls after the redecoration of the store is completed.

Charles Darwin is credited with the theory of "the survival of the fittest."
